Register now for bigger workshops this fall

You told us that it has been hard to get seats on our Financial Literacy Workshops and on the MEDOC® information sessions. We heard you.

This fall, we will host a series of larger Financial Literacy workshops and more MEDOC® workshops at the Ottawa Convention and Event Centre, where we can seat 130 participants at a time. To help fund these workshops, we will use the money that we usually spend on our General Members' Meeting. Therefore, there will be no GMM this fall.

The workshops will be offered in the language of the presenter, however, participation in both official languages is always encouraged. Watch our monthly electronic newsletter for details. Below are the September 2019 workshops. Click below to register now.

Investing for Retirees – Michael Fine, MBA and Ottawa Branch Member, will lead another discussion seminar on generating income in a tax efficient manner to support a retirement lifestyle. This free, two-part seminar is designed for retired members who are already involved in managing their own investments. To register, click on: Investing for Retirees - Sept. 4 & 11.

Note: Michael Fine does not work in the financial services industry and is not involved in the sale of financial investments or the provision of financial advice for a fee.

Estate Planning with Scotia Wealth Management – This free, 90-minute workshop will focus on the legal and extralegal considerations involved in planning and administering an estate. To register, click on: Estate Planning with Scotia Wealth Management - Sept. 18.

What's New with MEDOC®

Learn about the latest enhancements to MEDOC® emergency medical travel insurance from Johnson Inc. We encourage you to invite a guest who is not yet a member. Hopefully, they will decide to join us. To register for this free, one-hour evening session, click on: MEDOC® at 7:00 p.m. Sept. 4 or click on: MEDOC® at 7:00 p.m. Sept. 11.

We are also renovating our boardroom to increase the seating capacity at workshops we host in-house (20 vs.30 seats). Therefore, the Ottawa Branch office is now closed to visitors until August 19, 2019, but you can still phone (613-737-2199) or email us at info@nafrottawa.com during the summer.
